2013

After spending 8 years pursuing TCM and Biomedical Studies in China, Physician Leong Weizhen returned and established Oriental Remedies Inc.

2014

As an advocate of TCM, Physician Leong actively shared the wisdom of TCM by lecturing at Ngee Ann Polytechnic.

2017

Co-founders Beatrice Liu and Physician Leong became acquainted during Beatrice's journey in seeking complementary treatments for her mum's cancer. Taking on the role as a caregiver, Beatrice left her job and volunteered at Oriental Remedies Inc.

2019

Phy Leong and Beatrice co-founded Oriental Remedies Group as we opened a second outlet at East Coast to serve the rapidly growing patient count. Our co-founders continuously sought out new technology to accelerate patients' recovery, allowing all who come through our doors to feel better faster.

KEY TREATMENTS

TCM TRADITIONAL THERAPIES

ACUPUNCTURE

The stimulation of acupuncture points improves the flow of blood and energy, allowing nutrients to be transported to areas in need. This supports the body's healing process and often relieves pain and aches

BENEFITS

- Aids recovery from severe conditions like stroke and surgery
- Encourages better sleep quality and alleviates mood disorders (e.g. Anxiety, Stress)
- Manages metabolic conditions (e.g. Diabetes, Hypertension, High Cholesterol)

CUPPING

Heated cups are used to create a suction effect which pulls the muscles upwards and into the cups. This action opens up the blood pathway, resulting in better blood circulation and relieves muscle aches and tension

BENEFITS

- Improves fertility and reduces gynaecological disorders
- Manages high blood pressure and migraine
- Relieves respiratory congestion caused by allergies and asthma

HERBAL MEDICATION & DIETARY CHANGES

Herbal medication is typically prescribed to correct not just symptoms, but also underlying deficiencies and imbalances to restore balance for bodily functions and systems to work normally

BENEFITS

- Highly customised to each individual's condition and body constitution
- Effective for both immediate relief and chronic conditions

TECHNOLOGY-ENHANCED THERAPIES

ELECTRO-LYMPHATIC THERAPY (ELT)

Electro-Lymphatic Therapy (ELT) is a gentle and non-invasive therapy that helps to stimulate proper flow and drainage of the lymphatic system, simulating the effects of a massage or tuina without the pain and pressure. ELT is performed using an FDA-registered wellness device to boost your overall wellness.

BENEFITS

- Improves overall wellness and detoxifies the body
- Reduce water retention and inflammation
- Support sports performance and recovery

NEGATIVE IONS THERAPY

Negative Ions therapy uses a Japan-made wellness device to transmit large amounts of negative ions/electrons into the body. This transmission happens through pads that are placed on the skin; it is painless and effective.

BENEFITS

- Experience high amount of anti-oxidant effect in a short time
- Improve cellular metabolism and detoxification
- Improve overall wellness and relaxation

WHAT OUR PATIENTS SAY

“ I have done over 20 ELT sessions to maintain my wellness and also use ORG herbal medication to keep me in optimal condition. ”

ELSIE KEE
BREAST CANCER

After my cancer surgery, which involved removing lymph nodes, I felt swelling and tightness at my underarm area. After going to Oriental Remedies Group (ORG) for a session of Electro-Lymphatic Therapy (ELT) treatment, I felt great! The difference was significant – I no longer had pain and tightness around my chest and arm area.

I could feel my muscles more relaxed and feel my body getting better. I have done over 20 ELT sessions to maintain my wellness and also use ORG herbal medication to keep me in optimal condition. I have since recommended my family and friends for their various ailments and they all benefitted a lot from the Physicians.

“ After 4 sessions of ELT, I felt improvements in my wellness, and after 4 months, I feel I have recovered. ”

ADRIENNE TEO
AUTOIMMUNE DISEASE

So grateful that Physician Leong Weizhen diagnosed my Sjorgen Syndrome accurately when no other medical practitioner could advise what was wrong with me prior to seeing her. I was suffering because of my symptoms (blocked tear ducts, salivary and sweat glands) but could not get any relief from other practitioners. Physician Leong immediately identified my issues and used acupuncture and herbal medication effectively for me. After 4 sessions of ELT, I felt improvements in my wellness, and after 4 months, I feel I have recovered.

As such, I have recommended my whole family to visit. My husband went to her for carpal tunnel and shoulder issues and felt better after 1 session. Two of my sisters are also going to ORG for cancer support treatments. The Physicians are really competent, caring, gentle and funny! Treatments are extremely value-for-money given the effectiveness! Highly recommended!

“ The herbal medication really helped in balancing my overall body constitution. I’m glad that I was able to conceive a healthy baby boy after that! ”

MAYBELLINE
FERTILITY

Ever since getting married in 2017, my husband and I have been trying to conceive a baby. I experienced very painful menstrual cramps and heavy menstrual flow since I was young. A friend of mine recommended Oriental Remedies Group so I decided to head down for a consultation.

Physician Leong told me that it was difficult for me to get pregnant due to my history of fibroids in my womb and my body’s cold constitution coupled with poor sleep quality. I was told that I have ‘cold’ womb syndrome which typically prohibits pregnancy in women.

After taking a week’s worth of herbal medication, I could feel my body warming up from inside out! The herbal medication really helped in balancing my overall body constitution. I’m glad that I was able to conceive a healthy baby boy after that!

I highly recommend all couples trying to conceive to seek help from Oriental Remedies Group to strengthen and prepare your bodies for conceiving!

At Oriental Remedies Group, we enhance traditional methods with technology, helping you feel better faster.
